GLOBAL SOLUTIONS INSTITUTE

The GSI Fulbright Initiative

The Global Solutions Institute Fulbright Initiative seeks to identify, organize and mobilize many Fulbright Scholar Alumni around the world to become involved in accelerating deployment of problem solving technologies and other solutions in their respective countries.

165

GSI Fulbright committees in formation in 165 countries

400,000

more than 400,000 Fulbright alumni worldwide

4

Registries under development

115

more than 115 former Presidents and Prime Ministers of the Club de Madrid

THE GLOBAL DEPLOYMENT SYSTEM

The Global Deployment System consists of four Registries under development

1. Registry of Solutions
2. Registry of Deployment Finance Sources
3. Registry of Those Seeking Solutions
4. Registry of Deployment Accelerators

   including Trade Associations and GSI Fulbright Committees

The Global Deployment System also includes the Digital Transformation Global Goals (DTG2) to accelerate the deployment domestically and globally of problem solving technologies and other solutions involving AI and related infrastructure.

CONGRESS

The importance of our GSI Initiatives

> “Through GSI Fulbright committees in 165 countries, and access to state-of-the-art information systems, this network will enable stronger connections and faster deployment of problem-solving technologies and solutions.”

Senator John Boozman
of the US Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry

> “Ultimately, the GSI Fulbright Initiative strengthens the return on America’s Fulbright investment by accelerating the global deployment of solutions that work.”

Congressman French Hill
of the US House of Representatives Committee on Financial Services

We are also now working with a new Bi-Partisan Congressional International Exchange (“Fulbright”) Caucus led by Senator Cory Booker and Senator John Boozman involving many Senators and Congressmen of both parties from around the country.

Watch: the Panel ↗ Visit: www.globalsinstitute.org ↗ Visit: www.fulbright.org ↗